

PRIVACY POLICY

pursuant to Art. 13 of EU Regulation 679/2016 and applicable privacy provisions Consultants and Collaborators

Introduction

Pursuant to and for the purposes of EU Regulation 679/2016 on the protection of personal data ("Regulation") and any other EU or national provision and/or regulation applicable to the protection of personal data, FORES ENGINEERING S.R.L., Via Secondo Casadei 12 47122 Forlì, e-mail: privacy@fores.it ; tel. 0543 813 811 ("Company" or "Controller"), informs you that the personal data ("Data") provided by you during the establishment and/or execution of the consultancy or collaboration relationship, or otherwise acquired within the scope of our Company's activities, may be processed in compliance with the following.

1. Purposes and legal basis for the processing

The Controller collects and processes your personal data in the context of the collaboration agreement entered into with the Company. The information processed is compulsory and necessary to properly execute the contractual relationship between you and our Company (e.g. personal details, contact details, bank details, etc.). Below is an explanation of the purposes for which your data is processed, as well as the legal basis underpinning the processing thereof.

The Company processes the Data for the following purposes:

- (i) the management and execution of the existing contractual relationship between you and our Company;
- (ii) purposes related to the management of your activity as a consultant or collaborator (e.g. administrative, accounting, tax requirements).

The legal basis for the processing of Data for the attainment of these purposes is the execution and proper management of the agreement entered into between you and the Company;

- (iii) the management of disputes in the event of breaches, claims, litigation, and/or settlements.

The legal basis for the processing of Data for the purposes mentioned above is the pursuit of a legitimate interest of the Company and/or of third parties (e.g. in the event of disputes), which, based on the assessments made by the Company, does not prove to be prejudicial to your rights;

- (iv) purposes connected with the fulfilment of obligations established by law, regulations, national and EU legislation and provisions issued by authorities empowered to do so by law.

The legal basis for the processing of Data for this purpose is the fulfilment of obligations laid down in the law and applicable regulations.

2. Nature of data provision and consequences of failure to provide data

For the execution of the purposes listed above, the processing of Data is necessary and failure to provide it will make it impossible for the collaboration agreement between you and the Company to be executed.

3. Categories of persons/entities to whom the data may be disclosed

The Data will not be disclosed and may be communicated, for the above-mentioned purposes, to the following: (i) companies belonging to the same corporate Group as our Company; (ii) persons, companies, associations or professional firms that provide assistance, consultancy, and services to our Company, with particular but not exclusive reference to accounting, administrative, legal, tax and financial matters; (iii) banking institutions for the disbursement of fees and insurance companies; (iv) persons/entities to whom the right to access the Data is granted by provisions of the law and secondary regulations or by provisions issued by authorities empowered to do so by law. Persons/entities belonging to the above categories will use the Data as autonomous controllers or Processors. These persons/entities may be established in EU and non-EU countries. In particular, in the event that these persons/entities are established in non-EU countries, the Company shall adopt the measures provided for in the Regulation to legitimise the transfer of personal data to them.

The list of persons/entities to whom the data is or may be disclosed, as well as an indication of the privacy measures adopted to legitimise the transfer of data to extra-EU entities, may be requested from the Company by contacting the addresses indicated in 'the 'Data subjects' rights' section.

The Data may also be brought to the attention of our personnel who will process it in their capacity as personnel in charge of data processing.

4. Data retention criteria

The Data will be processed for the entire duration of the contractual relationship with our Company, after which it will be retained in compliance with the ordinary limitation periods set forth in the Italian Civil Code or specific provisions of law, for administrative purposes and/or to enforce or defend legitimate rights or interests, and it will be deleted when the purposes for which it was collected no longer apply.

5. Data subjects' rights

We inform you that, in the cases expressly provided for in the Regulation, you may exercise the rights set out in Art. 15 et seq. of the Regulation and precisely you may:

- (i) request confirmation that the Data is being processed and, if so, ask the Controller for access to information relating to such processing;
- (ii) request that incomplete or inaccurate Data is rectified;
- (iii) ask the Controller to delete the Data;
- (iv) request the restriction of the processing;
- (v) request to receive, in a commonly used and machine-readable format, the Data concerning you or to obtain that such Data are transmitted directly to another controller, where technically feasible (so called 'data portability').

In addition, you have the right to object, either wholly or partially, for legitimate reasons, to the processing of the Data that concerns you.

The aforementioned rights may be exercised by sending a request to the e-mail address: privacy@fores.it.

Finally, if you consider that the processing of the data provided violates data protection legislation, you have the right to lodge a complaint with the Italian Data Protection Authority (www.garanteprivacy.it).

6. Policy Update
